To all States Parties of the CWC

Cc: National Authorities of the CWC

On behalf of the Government of Switzerland and the Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW), the Technical Secretariat wishes to invite States Parties to nominate participants for the Swiss Laboratory course, which will be held in Spiez, Switzerland, from 31 October to 4 November 2022.

The course is related to the offer made by Switzerland under Article X of the Chemical Weapons Convention (hereinafter “the Convention”) to provide assistance and protection against chemical weapons and will be jointly organised by the Government of Switzerland and the Technical Secretariat (hereinafter “the Secretariat”). Participants will receive basic Laboratory training in detection of chemical weapons in a Laboratory setting . The course will also provide a basic introduction to chemical warfare agents, and explain the basics of individual protective measures, and of detection equipment.

The course, which draws on Switzerland’s extensive experience in this area, is intended for specialists who are, or will be, associated with the training of civilians in their home countries in protection against chemical weapons. The course draws on the extensive experience of laboratory specialists in the Swiss armed forces in providing technical and personnel support to civilian authorities, it will provide basic training to specialists and experts who are or will be associated with detection and laboratory analysis in their home countries. The participants will be equipped with detection equipment that can be used in the event of an emergency to provide a simple but reliable qualitative and semi-quantitative analysis of chemical agents in air, soil, water, and food.

Given the purpose of the course and its technical nature, candidates will be carefully selected and should have a solid technical background in chemistry associated with assistance and protection against chemical agents and laboratory experience. They should also be physically fit and be able to wear individual protective equipment for several hours at a time during the practical sessions of the course.

The Secretariat expects to be able to sponsor a limited number of participants from States Parties. Each nomination should specify whether sponsorship is a condition of the nominee's participation. For sponsored participants, the Secretariat will cover the costs of travel and medical insurance and will provide a limited subsistence allowance to cover sundry expenses. The course materials, accommodation, and all meals during the course will be provided to all participants by the Government of Switzerland, at no cost to them or to the OPCW. Further details regarding accommodation, the course venue, and transport will be provided at a later date. All nominations from SPs must be formally endorsed by the National Authority.

The course will be conducted in English, and no interpretation services of any kind will be provided. Participants are therefore, expected to have a good command of the English language, both written and oral.

Participants are requested to obtain any necessary visas and vaccinations, including transit visas, before travelling to Switzerland and having a European Union recognised valid Covid vaccination.

Interested applicants are invited to register their nomination online through Eventus - the OPCW event management system—no later than 19 August 2022. The Eventus registration link is accessible via the OPCW website at: <https://apps.opcw.org/eventus/Home?eventid=397>

Only selected participants with the approval of their National Authority will be accepted to attend this course.

The endorsement procedure will be done by the National Authority through Eventus.

Additional information about the course may be obtained from the Assistance and Protection Branch, International Cooperation and Assistance Division. The contact persons are Mr Patrick Wengler (email: Patrick.wengler@opcw.org, tel. + 31 70 416 3423) and Mrs Maria Elena Bruno-Pousadela (email: mariaelena.bruno-pousadela@opcw.org, tel. +31 70 416 3217).
